Rudolf Samandarov being duly sworn deposes and says:

- 1. I am a defendant in the above captioned complaint as well as the President of defendants Group Americar Transportation LLC ("Americar") and BC Leasing Corporation ("BC Leasing").
- 2. I submit this affidavit in support of defendants' application to dismiss the complaint as each plaintiff and American had agreed to resolve disputes by arbitration pursuant to a Subscription Agreement.

Arbitration

3. I formed Americar and BC Leasing in 2004. Americar is licensed by the New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission ("TLC") as a base facility to dispatch commissioned "For Hire" drivers in the metropolitan New York City area for vehicle transportation commonly known as the "Black Car" industry. This is so as typically the vehicles used for transportation of the customers are black sedans often Lincoln Towncars. BC Leasing is an affiliated company that assists drivers in the purchase or lease of vehicles to be used in the For Hire transportation business. Prior to establishing these companies and beginning in 1984 while I was a student at Brooklyn College I have been involved full time in the Black Car industry in New York City. In 1984 I was the co-owner and founder of a Black Car company, with a membership that eventually grew to over 500 affiliated vehicles and more than one hundred employees. During the past twenty-three years I have been a leader in the New York City transportation industry including serving as a director of the Black Car Assistant Corporation ("BCAC") from 2001 through 2003. The BCAC was instrumental in lobbying the New York State legislature to enact the workers compensation insurance program that enables the For Hire Drivers to have insurance in the event of a vehicle accident. This legislation is Article 6-F of the Executive Law of the General Obligations Law of New York and known as the New York Black Car Operators' Injury Compensation Fund. In 2006 the League of Mutual Taxi Owners, Inc., founded in 1934 and known in the New York City vehicle transportation business as "LOMTO" named me as "Man of the Year" For over twenty-three years I have held a prominent position in the New York City vehicular transportation field and the allegations by these plaintiffs are the first time such claims as RICO have been brought against me. I believe these plaintiffs commenced this case in order to avoid paying their just obligations to Americar including the personal loan to Plaintiff Tadeusz Kowalewski ("Kowalewski") to save him and his family from foreclosure where American paid his home mortgage then outstanding debt of $5,118.46 in the form of a loan to him, which remains partially unpaid. I did so after he pleaded with me in September of 2004 to help him during that difficult time of his life.

- Each Subscription Agreement entered into by plaintiffs states in paragraph 20 4. entitled "Arbitration: Waiver of Trial by Jury" as follows:
  - a) The sole and exclusive method of resolving any claim or controversy whatsoever between the Company, its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, other agents, employees and shareholders on the other hand, unless otherwise specified in this Subscription Agreement, shall be binding arbitration according to the procedures set forth in this section. Disputes which shall be subject to binding arbitration are: (I) the amount of payment for or deduction from Subscriber's voucher payments; (ii) any monetary fine assessed against a Subscriber pursuant to Rules and Regulations promulgated under this Subscription Agreement; and (iii) any claim for discrimination of work offered to Subscriber or Subscriber's driver. The procedure to be followed by the Subscriber with respect to any controversy set forth in subsection (I), (ii) or (iii) of this paragraph shall be the following: in each instance, Subscriber shall first submit such claim or controversy to the Appeals Committee of the Company, and if the aggrieved Subscriber is not satisfied by the decision of the Appeals Committee of the Company, then Subscriber shall submit the same to binding arbitration conducted by a single arbitrator and administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules, or by such other independent and impartial organization as may be designated by the Company, and the determination rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the parties. In any claim or controversy not within the scope of subsection (I), (ii) or (iii) of this paragraph, submission to the Appeals Committee of the Company shall not be required. In any arbitration hereunder, each party shall bear its own expenses, including legal fees; provided, however, that in the event the Subscriber recovers more than two-third of the amount of controversy, the Company shall reimburse the Subscriber's filing fees but no other expenses or fees. An arbitrator shall have the authority to award compensatory damages only. This section shall not apply to: (I) any claim or cause brought by the Company to enforce a non-competition agreement between the parties herein; (ii) any claim or cause arising from or in connection with the termination of this Subscription Agreement, and (iii) any claim or cause arising from or in connection with the suspension of the use of this Subscription by the Subscriber. Each claim or controversy required to be arbitrated pursuant to this provision must be submitted in writing first to the Appeal Committee of the Company within sixty (60) days after the date the claim or controversy arose (if such submission is required), and must be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the applicable arbitration rules within one hundred and eighty (180) days after the date the Appeal Committee of the Company renders its final determination of such claim or controversy or within 180 days from the date the claim or controversy arose if submission to the Appeal Committee of the Company is not required by this section. These limitations on the time for submitting claims and controversies shall be applicable to such claims and controversies notwithstanding any longer period that may be provided by statute or the Commercial Arbitration Rules, and failure to submit such claims and controversies in a timely manner shall be a complete bar to such claims or controversies."

5. Defendants in their complaint admit entering into these Subscription Agreements. As to Plaintiff Kowalewski see paragraph 67 of the complaint. As to Plaintiff Oleg Logunovski ("Logunovski") see paragraph 74 of the complaint. As to Plaintiff Nicholas Klimiuk (Klimiuk") see paragraph 80 of the complaint. As to Plaintiff Stanislaw Puchala (Puchala") see paragraph 88 of the complaint. A copy of the complaint is attached as Exhibit A. A copy of defendants' answer and counterclaims is attached as Exhibit B. A copy of the Subscription Agreement as to Kowalewski is attached as Exhibit C. A copy of the Subscription Agreement as to Logunovski is attached as Exhibit D. A copy of the Subscription Agreement as to Puchala is attached as Exhibit E<sup>1</sup>.

Independent Contractor

6. Each year of its operation Americar filed a franchise prospective with the New York State Attorney General to operate as a franchisor and such filings have been approved by the applicable representative of the New York State Attorney General's office so that Americar can do business in this capacity. The controlling document that is entered into by Americar and its respective franchisee is the Subscription Agreement that each plaintiff admitted entering. See the preceding paragraph herein. Paragraph 6 of each of the plaintiffs' respective Subscription

Though plaintiff Klimiuk admits entering his Subscription Agreement, see paragraph 80 of the complaint, each Subscription Agreement is identical, and the standard form is on file with the New York Attorney General, his agreement as of this date is missing from American's files; but it is the same as entered by the other three plaintiffs whose agreements are attached as Exhibits C, D and E except its date and subscriber's name.

"Independent Contractor. The subscriber is and shall remain an independent contractor and shall not be deemed to be an employee or agent of the Company. The Subscriber shall at all times be free from the control or direction of the Company in the operation of the Subscriber's vehicle and the Company shall not supervise or direct the services to be performed by the Subscriber, except as specifically otherwise set forth herein. As an independent contractor, the Subscriber shall be responsible, inter alia, for obtaining and paying for government licenses and permits required for the operation of Subscriber's vehicle, oil, gas, vehicle repairs, insurance, traffic and parking violations, and other items required for the operation of the Subscriber's business."

- Each plaintiff decides when during each day and which day he would begin working. He would work each day as long or as short as he desired. He works as many or few days each week as he chooses. Each plaintiff determines at what location he begins working, whether at an airport, or any of the various Americar accounts. At the end of each work period he would take his vehicle home or park it where ever he chooses. When not working for Americar, he would use the car for personal errands or as he chooses. Americar did not offer these plaintiffs either a health plan nor a pension plan.
- Americar would not supervise or direct the services to be performed by the plaintiffs. Plaintiffs were required to follow the rules and regulations of the controlling governmental agencies such as the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles and TLC as required under the terms of their license with TLC, as well as the rules created by the drivers committee to insure safe and reliable service to the customers.
- 9. As the plaintiffs were independent contractors they were responsible for obtaining and maintaining their applicable governmental licenses and permits as required for the operation of their businesses, that includes their TLC For Hire license. A copy of Plaintiffs' For Hire license from TLC for Kowalewski, Logunovski and Puchala are attached as Exhibits F, G and H

10. Americar did not withhold any income taxes from the plaintiffs and plaintiffs were issued 1099's each year (not W-2's) as to their gross incomes earned in the operation of plaintiffs' independent businesses. A copy of their respective 1099's issued to them by Americar are attached as Exhibits I, J, K and L respectively. By receiving 1099's each plaintiffs would deduct from their gross incomes the expenses they incurred and paid for in the operation of their independent businesses such as oil, gas, vehicle repairs, insurance, traffic, parking violations and other items required for the operation of their independent businesses.

11. By reason of the foregoing request is made that defendants' application to dismiss the complaint be granted as the parties agreed to resolve disputes by arbitration pursuant to the Subscription Agreement.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

(DEFENDANTS AMERICAR AND SAMANDAROV)

Defendant American specializes in providing ground transportation services (limousines and car service) on a pre-arranged or on demand basis in New York tri-state area.

Defendant American operates a franchise basiness whereby it sells subscriptions to its franchisees.

- Each franchised also known as an American subscriber, applies a right through the team of a subscription, to participate in Defendant American's radio dispatch system and to use Defendant American's two way and/or and associated communications equipment ("Installed Communications Equipment" or "ICE"), certain other products and services in connection therewith.
- The Subscription Agreement sets forth all the rights and obligations of Defondant American and each person who executes a Subscription Agreement.
- 16. Under its Subscription Agreement, Defendant Americar currently uses a Nextel direct connect radio system and provides each subscriber with a Nextel radio (the "Radio") equipping the subscriber to receive and respond to radio calls from Defendant American's communications headquarters. These calls inform the subscriber of the location of customers who have telephoned or otherwise contacted Defendant American's communications headquarters for transportation service.
- In order to obtain a subscription, each prospective subscriber has to pay a subscription fee in the amount of at least $10,000.00 (the "Subscription Fee") to Americar at the time when he or she entered into a Subscription Agreement with Defendants. The Subscription Agreement was to be paid in a lump sum upon signing the Agreement or in equal installment payments for a period not exceeding three years, plus interest on the unpaid balance at a rate determined from time-to-time by Defendant Americar and which is currently 12% per annum, but which in no event will exceed the maximum rate permitted by law.

- In their subscription agreement. Defendant American also represented that "it does not receive any payment from any person either offering financing to, or arranging financing for a prespective Subscriber."
- On or about June 15, 2004, Defendant Samandarov opened a domestic corporation BC Leasing Corp. ("Defendant BC Leasing").
- 20. The Subscription Agreement offered to Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiffs' class did not explicitly allow the subscribers to sell their subscriptions. Under the Subscription Agreement offered to Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiffs' class. Defendant American's fee upon any assignment of a Subscription to another driver is ten percent (10%) of the purchase price plus any amounts then due to the company from the Subscriber
- The Subscription Agreement offered to Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiffs' class also provides that if a Subscriber avails himself of the Defendant American's guarantee of Subscriber's vehicle loan, Subscriber would not be permitted to use such vehicle except in connection with servicing customers referred by Defendant American until such time as Subscriber's vehicle loan is satisfied and the Company's guarantee of such loan is released.
- 22. Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiffs' class have complained that throughout the Class Period, Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiffs' class have not received the franchise offering circular for prospective franchisees as required by the State of New York. In addition, the circulars which were provided to subscribers were materially different from the one filed with the Attorney General's office. Defendant Samandarov modified Exhibit "A" and "D" of the Circular by omitting all information pertaining to - the list of current and term anded subscriptions. Hence, the chealers which were provided to the subscribers stated that the information pertaining to current and terminated subscriptions was inapplicable.

- In addition, Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiffs' class have complained that throughout the Class Period, the franchise offering circular for prospective tranchisees, which was offered to Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiffs' class, had failed to make the relevant disclosures of shareholder (agreement) and financial information which are required under the New York law.
- 24. Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiffs' class also complained that Defendants engaged in a traudulent scheme whereby they sold their cars to their subscribers at an inflated price, and reaped additional illegal profits when they arranged for a financing of the subscription fee and the purchase price of the car with creditors such as League of Mutual Taxi Owners, Popular Ford Sales, Inc. a/k/a Ford Credit, and others.
- 25. In addition, unbeknownst to subscribers and without their consent Defendant Samandarov, the owner of Defendants American and BC Leasing, transferred the titles to the cars purchased by the subscribes under the name of Defendant BC Leasing.
- Defendants thereafter engaged in a fraudulent scheme whereby they confiscated the cars purchased by subscribers, as a result of forging the title and registration documents, causing many subscribers to lose their ability to service customers referred by Defendant Americar and utilize their subscription agreements to their benefit.
- Defendants engaged in various other illegal schemes whereby they deducted the weekly automobile insurance premiums and car loan payments from the subscribers' paychecks but failed to pay those amounts to the subscribers' respective insurance companies and

- ienders, causing many subscribers to default on their toans and insurance premium payments to their insurance companies and other creditors.
- 28 Philippins and the members of the Plaintiffs' class also complained that they were unaware that once they entered into the subscription agreements with the Defendants, they would not be eligible to transfer their subscriptions back to Defendants.
- 29. During the Class Period, many subscribers had demanded a full refund of their money paid to Defendants for their subscription agreements. Defendants had ignored numerous complaints from disgruntled subscribers and frequently successfully prevented them from seeking tegal advice by making various threats to them.
- Henceforth, Defendants have been actively engaged in a scheme whereby they successfully transferred the cars from one innocent subscriber to the next under the false pretenses.
- 31. That at all times herein, the Corporate Defendants transacted an still transact substantial business and derived and still derive substantial revenue from services rendered in the State of New York.
- 32. Upon information and belief, the Individual Defendant, Samandarov, was and still is the owner, director, officer, shareholder, manger, employee and/or agent of the Corporate Defendants American and BC Leasing.
- 33. At all times herein, the Individual Defendant, Samandarov, has conducted business as the Corporate Defendants.
- 34. At all tomes relevant herein, the individual Defendant, Samandarov, has acted for and on behalf of the Corporate Defendants, American and BC Leasing, with the power and authority rested in him as officer, agent and employee of the Corporate Defendants, and

- has acted in the course and scope of his duties and tenetions as again, amployee and officer of the Corporate Defendants.
- Defendant Samandarov and as will be established a torial, for the purpose of the claims made by Plaintiffs herein. Defendants American and BC Leasing have no separate legal existence from Detendant Samandarov, and, as a result, this Corporate Defendants American and BC Leasing an the Individual Defendant Samandarov, individually and collectively, and jointly and severally, are liable for all claims made herein
- Opon information and belief, at all times relevant herein, the Corporate Defendants American and BC Leasing had common employees: shared documentation pertaining to car, including but not limited to, registration, tirle, automobile insurance and payment, car loan information and repayment, were joint venturers with respect to obtaining and processing these documents and payments; and were alter egos of each other such that they do not have separate existence from each other, and as will be established at trial, for the purpose of the claims made by Plaintiffs herein, each of the Corporate Defendants has no separate legal existence from each other and collectively, and jointly and severally, the Corporate Defendants are liable for all claims made herein by Plaintiffs.

CLASS ACTION

37. That this civil action is brought as a class action against Defendants American and Samandarov, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a)(1)-(4), 23(b)(1), (2) or (3) and case law thereunder, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated who comprise the following class (the "Class"), defined as follows:

All persons who entered into the subscription agreements with Defendants and who thereafter disputed their transactions with Defendants and/or were defrauded by Defendants and who are interested in pursuing this lawsuit. The Class Period is the period from January 2004 to the present.

- Excluded from the Class are Defendants, employees and agents of the Defendants, members of the immediate family of the Defendants, any entity in which Defendants Samandarov, Group American and BC Leasing have a controlling interest, and Defendants Group American and BC Leasing legal representatives, hens, successors or assigns.
- This action has been brought and is properly maintainable as a class action, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a)(1)-(4), 23(b)(1), (2) or (3), and case law thereunder.
- Mumerosity of the Class Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1): Although the exact number of class members cannot be ascertained, they are so numerous and geographically dispersed that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The precise number of class members and their addresses is unknown to Plaintiffs but can be readily determined from inspection of records maintained by Defendant Americar. Class members may be notified of the pendency of this action by mail, supplemented (if deemed necessary or appropriate by the Court) by published notice.
- 41. Existence and Predominance of Common Questions of Fact and Law Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2)(23(b)(3)). There are common questions of law and fact involved herein which predominate over any questions affecting any individual accurate at the class. The common cases on at law and fact include, but are not involved to the 1 showing

- a. whether Defendants violated Section 349 of the New York General Business Law

  "Gen. Bus. L.") in that they engaged in deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of their business;
- b. whether Defendants violated Gen. Bus. L., Section 350 by engaging in false advertising in the conduct of their businesses;
- whether Defendants committed fraud by advertising and selling their subscription agreements under the guise that those subscriptions could be transferred back to Defendants or third parties:
- d. whether Plaintiffs are entitled to rescission of their subscription agreements due to Defendants' failure to offer relevant disclosures as required under New York Franchise Sales Act;
- whether Defendants were unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiffs and the Class;
- f. whether Defendants refused to reimburse the subscribers when they illegally confiscated their cars and cancelled their subscription agreements;
- g. whether Defendants acted illegally, as alleged herein,
- whether Plaintitts and the Class are entitled to restitution of all monies acquired by Defendants from Plaintiffs and the Class and the general public as a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, and, if so, the appropriate measure of damages:
- 1. The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and monetary relief.
- 12 Explorate bod, R. Cir. P. Bornett. Unimital endow are topic dealth see. Ethe Class of the Class and Take its strong increase that are cargonisms to be contrary to do increase of the Class.

- 43. Adequacy Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4): Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the members of the class because their interests do not conflict with the interests of the Class members they seek to represent. Plaintiffs have retained competent counsel experienced in class litigation and intend to prosecute this action vigorously.
- 44. Superiority Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3): A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Plaintiffs know of no difficulty to be encountered in the management of this action which would preclude its maintenance as a class action. Furthermore, since the damages suffered by individual class members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual Etigation make it impracticable for the class members to seek redress individually for the wrongs they have suffered.
- 45. In the alternative, the Class may be certified under the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P 13(b)(1) and/or 23(b)(2) because:
  - a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual Class members would create members which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant:
  - b. the prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members would create a risk of adjudications with respect to them which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other Class members not parties to the adjudications, or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; and
  - Defendants has an edition of front on percent and an expensive policy and has a factor of the Chess thereby auditors appropriate final organization of its formation of the factor of the same whole.

Violations of Racketeer Influenced Corrupt Organizations Act, Sections 1962(c) and (d).

- Defendants have violated 18 U.S.C. §§ 1962(c) and (d) by conspiring and committing multiple acts of mail fraud, and wire fraud in a continuing pattern of racketeering.
- 47. During the relevant period, Defendants Samandarov, Americar, and BC Leasing were involved in a scheme, pursuant to which they encouraged their users the subscribers and in particular. Plaintiffs within, to enter into the subscription agreements with Defendants.
- 48. Throughout the Class Period. Defendants were making false representation to the public at large that the subscription agreements offered by Defendants would offer various substantive rights to their subscribers as agreed. Throughout the Class Period, Defendants failed to offer relevant financial disclosures to the subscribers at large as required under New York Franchise Sales Act.
- 49. These representation musted the Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' crass in believing that they would not be disadvantaged and their lawful interests would not be harmed if they entered into the subscription agreements with Defendants. In practice, however Defendants Samandarov, Americar, and BC Leasing, unbeknownst to the subscribers and without their consent, with intention to defraud, frequently transferred the titles to the ears purchased by the subscribes under the name of Defendant BC Leasing.
- Defendants thereafter engaged in a fraudulent scheme whereby they confiscated the ears purchasen by subscribes as a result of foreing the tide and registration documents external tensor. I subscribe a class skill ability to receive a temporary continuous American and atthey their orbitalistic agreements to their beauty.

Case 1:07-cv-06706-RJS Document 15 Filed 10/30/2007 Page 24 of 50

- 51. Even if Defendants did not confiscate the subscribers' cars, the subscribers whose titles were transferred to Defendant BC Leasing would live in constant fear that their cars could be confiscated by Defendants at any point. These subscribers were also deprived of a possibility of ever owning their vehicles, or of leaving Defendant American to work for a different car service company or on their own.
- By engaging in the activity stated above, Defendant American and its principals commutted mail fraud within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1341 and 1343, respectively.
- 53. In those cases when the subscribers lost their rights under the subscription agreement with Defendants, the subscribers' interests were not protected, as neither Defendant Samandarov nor the creditors who financed the subscription of agreements reimbursed the subscribers for the payments made.
- When the subscribers turned to Defendant Samandarov for a refund of their money, including the subscription fee, Defendants Samandarov and Group American, with the specific intent to defraud the public at large, failed to advise their subscribers of their decision to deny a refund but advised them to wait for their decision for extended periods of time. As a result, the subscribers continued to make the payments to the creditors for the subscription agreements as well as cars that they no longer owned.
- By engaging in the activity stated above. Defendant American and its principals committed additional counts of mail and wire fraud within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1341 and 1343, respectively.

to have been derived from a criminal offense and/or were intended to be used to promote or support unlawful activity.

- 57. By engaging in the activity stated above, Defendant Samandarov committed additional counts of mail and wire fraud within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1341 and 1343, respectively.
- 58 Furthermore, Defendant Samandarov acted unlawfully when he transferred the titles to the cars purchased by his subscribers to Defendant BC Leasing. In addition, Defendant Samandarov also acted unlawfully when he forced his subscribers and in particular, the Plaintiffs within and the members of Plaintiffs' Class, to purchase cars from Defendants and other subscribers. Specifically, Defendant Samandarov was making false representation to his franchisees at the time when they were entering into the franchise agreements. This misrepresentation misled the Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' class in believing that they would not be disadvantaged and their lawful interests would not be harmed if they became subscribers of Defendant Americar.
- 59. Finally, Defendant BC Leasing is a financial institution under 15 U.S.C. § 1693a(8), and Plaintiffs and Class Members are "consumers" under 15 U.S.C. § 1693a(5), (check)
- 60. By Hegaliy transferring the titles from the subscribers to Defendant BC Leasing, each of the Defendants committed bank fraud within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 1344.

The monthly payments due to the Bank of America were $382.02, whereas Defendants Samandarov and Group America were illegally withholding over $534.00 per month from Logunovski's paychecks. Moreover, Defendant Samandarov was not making the loan payments to the Bank of America, and the Bank of America contacted Logunovski warning him as a guarantor that his debt would be transferred to a collections agency for non-payment. Logunovski contacted Defendant Samandarov and threatened him to report his conduct to the nathornties, after which Defendant Samandarov made a payment to the Bank of America.

79. Logunovski also was coerced by defendant Samandarov to be a guarantor on a loan taken by Plaintiff Nicholas Klimiuk from Ford Credit for the purchase of a 2002 Lincoln, VIN # H.NHM84W12Y670113, which was bought on or about December 9, 2004. Klimink was making payments to Ford Credit. On or about July 21, 2005, the same day he took away Mr. Ginsburg's car. Defendant Samandarov also took away Mr. Klimiuk's car by towing it away from Kings Highway (on the corner with West 6th Street) in Brooklyn. New York, and changing a door key combination (see also ¶ 86 infra). Defendant Samandarov gave Mr. Klimiuk's car to another driver, who used that car until approximately March 2006, after which Defendant Samandarov wanted Logucovski to take both Mr. Klimiuk and Mr. Ginsburg's cars. Logunovski refused. Defendant Samandarov then withheld $2,000 for two months from Logunovski's paychecks before Defendant Samundarov seld Mr. Klimiuk's cer for approximately $10,500. #### PLAINTIFF NICHOLAS KLIMIUK EXPERIENCE

- 80. On or about December 7, 2004, Plaintiff, Nicholas Klimiuk ("Klimiuk"), entered into a Subscription Agreement with Defendant Group American.
- 81. On or about December 7, 2004, Klimiuk borrowed approximately $10,096.00 from LOMTO, at 9.25 percent, towards the payment due under his subscription agreement with Defendant Group Americar. On the same day, LOMTO issued a check to Klimiuk in the amount of approximately $10,096.00, which Klimiuk delivered to Defendant Americar. Klimiuk, however, subsequently did not repay his loan directly to LOMTO. Instead, Defendants Samandarov and Americar withheld approximately $82.00 from Klimiuk's weekly paycheck, under a category "LOMTO Loan," as a repayment of his LOMTO loan.
- 82. Defendants Samandarov and Group American directed Klimiuk to Tower Auto Group. Inc. ("Tower") located in Brooklyn, New York, for a purchase of a car to be used for work at Group American. Upon information and belief, Tower has had an agreement with Defendant Group American, pursuant to which Defendant American has referred its drivers to buy cars from Tower and Tower has paid commission to Defendant American on the vehicles the American drivers have purchased. Initially, Tower quoted Klimiuk $17,900 as a car purchase price, which subsequently was increased to $21,900.00 to account for the American's commission.

- 84. Logunovski was a guarantor/co-signor on a loan Klimiuk took from Ford Credit in the amount of $17,638.88 (see also ¶ 79 supra). Klimiuk paid Ford Credit $822.02 per month in car loan payments.
- Defendants Samandarov, Group Americar and BC Leasing offered Klimiuk to obtain car insurance in the name of BC Leasing so that Klimiuk could save money on a group insurance rate. Klimiuk agreed, and Defendant BC Leasing obtained car insurance from Hereford Insurance Company on Klimiuk's vehicle listing BC Leasing Corp. as the insured.
- 86. On or about July 21, 2005, Defendants Samandarov and Group American took away Klimink's vehicle by towing it away while it was parked on Kings Highway and West 6th Street in Brooklyn. New York, and changing a door-key combination (see also ¶ 79 supra). When Klimiuk approached Defendant Samandarov and his assistant/manager Arkadiy Kogan requesting that his car be returned, he was told by Defendant Samandarov and Mr. Kogan that Defendants changed the title to his vehicle to Defendant BC Leasing and, hence. Klimiuk had no recourse against the Defendants. Klimiuk reported the incident to the police, but the police could not do anything since the car was registered to Defendant BC Leasing. Klimiuk received his last paycheck check # 003199, from the fact fact fact Cleary American the amount of $15.00 cm bily 15, 2005.
- Klimink incomed and Cardin that his vehicle was taken away by Defendants Samundaros and Group American and stopped paying his monthly loan payments.

Defendants Samandarov and Group Americar, however, did not make regular payments to Ford Credit, and, in April 2006, Klimiuk received from Ford Credit a Notice of Default and Intent to Repossess regarding overdue loan payments for the months of March and April 2006. Klimiuk received a similar notice from LOMTO since Defendants Samandarov and Group Americar did not make timely payments to LOMTO either.

PLAINTIFF STANISLAW PUCHALA'S EXPERIENCE

- 88. In or about July 2005 STANISLAW PUCHALA ("PUCHALA") entered into a Subscription Agreement with Defendant Group Americar. The Subscription Agreement was materially different from the one filed with the Attorney General's Office and was not signed by a representative from Defendant Group Americar. Puchala later approached Defendant Samandarov pointing out the omission, and, on or about September i. 2006. Defendant Samandarov and Puchala signed another copy of the same Subscription Agreement. As a payment under the Subscription Agreement. Defendants withhold $82.00, in the form of "Franchise Fee." from Puchala's weekly paychecks.
- 89. In or about July 2005, Logunovski agreed to help Puchala with the purchase of a car to be used for work at Group American and a loan to buy the car. Towards this end, Logunovski and Puchala purchased a 2001 Lincoln, VIN # 1LNHM85W11Y630045, from Cox National LLC, Bronx, New York, paying a down payment of $2,000 and borrowing $21,786.96 from HSBC bank as a car loan. The original certificate of title was issued in Logunovski's name.
- Defendance DO by long or Diagraphic recommended the half or regimen his care of BC is using so that Ducham conformation and about the half of the same conformation and Defendant BC Leasing registered the Leasing Corp. as the insured. Neither Puchala nor Logunovski signed any papers to enable Defendant BC Leasing to obtain car and TLC registration as well as car insurance in its name. For this favor, Defendant Americar charged Puchala $5,000 ($1,000 as a down payment and $4,000 in the form of an "Americar Loan" withheld from Puchala's weekly paychecks), even though Puchala made and continues to make all payments for the car registration. TLC payments, car insurance premium payments (withheld from his weekly paychecks in the amount of $160.00), car loan premium payments, and car repairs. In or about February 2007, Puchala approached Defendants BC Leasing and Americar requesting that all registration and car insurance documents be changed to his name. Defendants BC Leasing and Americar refused to do so.

91. Upon information and belief, in or about March 2007, Defendant Samandarov called a meeting of the Americar drivers, the subscribers. At the meeting, Defendant Samandarov announced that the subscribers can only use their radios while they work for Defendant Americar; however, they would not be able to sell or transfer their rights under their subscriptions upon their departure from the employ of Defendant Americar.

Defendants.

Defendants Rudolf Samandarov a/k/a Rudy Samandarov ("Samandarov"), Group Americar Transportation LLC ("Americar"), BC Leasing Corp. ("BC Leasing") and individual partners of corporate defendants by their attorney Eric B. Kaviar answer the complaint as follows:

- 1. Denies each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 12, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 83, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136 and 137.
- 2. Denies knowledge and information to form a belief as to paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7.

3. Denies each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21 except admits that Americar filed annual franchise offering circulars pursuant to laws of the State of New York and entered into Subscription Agreements with each plaintiff which documents speak for themself.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

- 4. Each Subscription Agreement entered into between plaintiffs and Americar by its respective paragraph 20 entitled "Arbitration; Waiver of Trial by Jury" provides:
  - a) The sole and exclusive method of resolving any claim or controversy whatsoever between the Company, its Affiliates, and their respective officers. directors, other agents, employees and shareholders on the other hand, unless otherwise specified in this Subscription Agreement, shall be binding arbitration according to the procedures set forth in this section. Disputes which shall be subject to binding arbitration are: (I) the amount of payment for or deduction from Subscriber's voucher payments; (ii) any monetary fine assessed against a Subscriber pursuant to Rules and Regulations promulgated under this Subscription Agreement; and (iii) any claim for discrimination of work offered to Subscriber or Subscriber's driver. The procedure to be followed by the Subscriber with respect to any controversy set forth in subsection (I), (ii) or (iii) of this paragraph shall be the following: in each instance, Subscriber shall first submit such claim or controversy to the Appeals Committee of the Company, and if the aggrieved Subscriber is not satisfied by the decision of the Appeals Committee of the Company, then Subscriber shall submit the same to binding arbitration conducted by a single arbitrator and administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules, or by such other independent and impartial organization as may be designated by the Company, and the determination rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the parties. In any claim or controversy not within the scope of subsection (I), (ii) or (iii) of this paragraph, submission to the Appeals Committee of the Company shall not be required. In any arbitration hereunder, each party shall bear its own expenses, including legal fees; provided, however, that in the event the Subscriber recovers more than two-third of the amount of controversy, the Company shall reimburse the Subscriber's filing fees but no other expenses or fees. An arbitrator shall have the authority to award compensatory damages only. This section shall not apply to: (1) any claim or cause brought by the Company to enforce a non-competition agreement between the parties herein; (ii) any claim or cause arising from or in connection with the termination of this Subscription Agreement, and (iii) any claim or cause arising from or in connection with the suspension of the use of this Subscription by the Subscriber. Each claim or controversy required to be arbitrated pursuant to this provision must be submitted in writing first to the Appeal Committee of the Company within sixty (60) days after the date the claim or controversy arose (if such submission is required), and must be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the applicable arbitration rules within one hundred and eighty (180) days after the date the Appeal Committee of the Company renders its final determination of such claim or controversy or within 180 days from the date the claim or controversy arose if submission to the Appeal Committee of the Company is not required by this section. These limitations on the time for submitting claims and controversies shall be applicable to such claims and controversies notwithstanding any longer period that may be provided by statute or the Commercial Arbitration Rules, and failure to submit such claims and controversies in a timely manner shall be a complete bar to such claims or controversies."

5. This court is not the proper forum to resolve the dispute herein, rather it should be resolved by Arbitration pursuant to the applicable provision in the parties Subscription Agreement.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

6. Statue of Limitations.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

7. Plaintiffs failed to state their allegations of fraud with particularity pursuant to FRCP 9(b).

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

8. Plaintiff Tadeusz Kowalewski ("Kowalewski") prior to the commencement of the above captioned action commenced an action in the Civil Court of the City of New York in the County of New York under Index No. 034879 CVN 2007 ("NYC Civil action") against the defendants herein wherein Kowalewski seeks damages caused to person, failure to pay for wages, failure to pay for insurance claim, breach of contract and loss of time from work, and seeks damages of $23,139. Upon information and belief the same facts and/or claims asserted in the NYC Civil action are stated herein.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

9. Certification is inappropriate as the alleged class is not to numerous.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

10. Paragraphs 67 through 73 of the complaint as to Kowalewski's alleged experience is inaccurate as follows. Kowalewski never owned the 2003 Lincoln Town Car. BC Leasing and Kowalewski entered into a verbal agreement whereby Kowalewski rented the 2003 Lincoln Town Car at $170.00 per week. In the event he made all the weekly payments for 105 week he would have the option to purchase this vehicle for $1.00. Kowalewski never made all of the 105 weekly payments. Rather prior to the 105 weekly payments being made Kowalewski returned the vehicle to BC Leasing. The vehicle was at all relevant times listed in the certificate of title as the owner being BC Leasing. At Kowalewski's request the vehicle identified by VIN #: 1LNHM84W93Y606435 was registered under Kowalewski's name in order that he could transfer the remaining portion of his liability insurance he had on a prior vehicle so that Kowalewski could save money. As part of the rental agreement Kowalewski was responsible to make all payments for the operation of this vehicle as well as make the weekly rental payments.

FIRST COUNTERCL AIM

11. On or about July 1, 2004 Kowalevski requested a loan from the League of Mutual Taxi Owners, Inc. ("LOMTO") for $10,096. Kowalewski's account number was 2097767. LOMTO agreed to grant this loan only upon the condition that Samandarov, Americar and BC Leasing guarantee the repayment of this loan. Kowalewski agreed in writing to repay this loan by Americar deducting $85.00 per week from his voucher check issued by Americar from Kowalewski's earnings. Kowalewski failed to make the payments on this loan leaving an outstanding balance of $5,185.

- 12. Defendants have continued to make these payments pursuant to the guarantees.
- 13. Defendants have been damaged by Kowalewski in the sum of $5,185.

SECOND COUNTERCLAIM

- On August 30, 2004 Kowalewski requested that Americar issue to him a loan for $500.
- 15. Americar issued Kowalewski this loan under a check number 486.
- 16. Kowalewski has not completely repaid this loan.
- 17. On or about September 28, 2004 Kowalewski met with Samadarov. Kowalewski stated that he was in default in his home mortgage in Pennsylvania. Kowalewski told Samandarov that if Kowalewski did not receive a loan for $5,118.46 he would be in default of his home mortgage and he would lose his home by foreclosure, he would have no place for him and his family to live. Mr. Kowalewski was very persuasive with Samandarov as to Kowalewski's percarious position as to his home mortgage. Samandarov agreed to lend this money through Americar make this payment for Kowalewskis's home mortgage. Americar made the payment to Kowalewski's mortgage company Countrywide Home Loan in the sum of $5,118.46. Kowalewski promised to repay this amount to Americar but Kowalewski has not completely done so. The check issued by Americar on behalf of Kowalewski for Kowalewski's home mortgage was check number 596. The section of the check in its memo states "Tadeusz Kowalewski 005761598" which is the account number that Kowalewski provided to Samandarov for Kowalewski's home mortgage. By reason of the foregoing Americar has been damaged.
